Secretary Report:

Greg Kiviat

Quorum established: 12 voting members present of 11 required.

Floor open to any comments on the February 2017 minutes, none received. Motion to approve the Secretary Report raised, seconded, and passed.

Treasurer Report:

Bob Hunt

Estimate-at-completion for 2017 more positive than originally budgeted: first projection was for a -$60K loss for the year. Workshop revenue exceeding expectations and the new hire budgeted for has not yet been hired, lowering the amount needed to pay the person.

ICEAA Board of Directors Meeting

June 5, 2017 | Portland, Oregon

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Floor open to any comments on the Treasurer Report, none received. Motion to approve the Treasurer Report raised, seconded, and passed.

International Business Office Report:

Megan Jones

Overall membership continues to decline slowly at approximately 100 members per meeting/300 members per year.

Companies with 15+ employees and many of the largest companies have declined considerably. Christina asks: how do we get the big companies to get back? We need to go to the big companies, need to get a champion in each company, ask what we can do for those companies to increase value. We need to get support at the highest level from the larger companies so that it filters down through the ranks:

Rex says suggests the big companies want to be in ICEAA to meet with government representatives, but if ICEAA attracts too many big companies, those companies will perceive that their access to the government representatives is diluted by the other big companies.

Action: Paul: create a sidebar working group to talk about how to approach the big org membership to get back involved.

Erin explains that Canada has the opposite problem: their membership is made up of more government employees than contractors. The Canada chapter's approach is to call their government members before planning their workshop every year to find out the hot button issues for those members and build their content around it. They also purchase a year of membership for all of their workshop attendees with the revenue from the event.

Megan shows a chart and list of the government employee ICEAA members, which makes up about 22% of total membership, about 1/3 of them are international.

Paul asks about Japan and JSCEA – they have not communicated with us in over a year, having ignored requests for their membership roster.

Andy asks how important training is for the English-speaking countries, and the group agrees that it is important for most. Erin says Canada is generally interested in our training and certification, but not all intend or need to use our training to be master-level cost estimators: accountants want to be PCEAs to be able to communicate with the cost estimators, but don't need the breadth and depth of the CCEA. Canada supported PCEA becoming renewable through points maintenance (this was voted down in favor of PCEA being sustained by re-testing at the June 2016 ICEAA Board meeting).

Noted that IPM conference attendance has been going down for 2 years (~20% each year). Comment that ICEAA budgets should reflect less revenue from this source in future

CEBoK Update Task Force Report:

Neil Albert

Neil Albert updates the board on the progress of the CEBoK Update Task Force. The team is focusing content on the DoD and civilian government agencies but making an effort to expand content to be relevant to more areas and disciplines. While the current CEBoK is very useful for the DoD, which uses standardized approaches across many departments/divisions, the challenge is to bring in representatives from other areas to find out how and what they're doing to evaluate and incorporate into CEBoK.

Erin is concerned that this DoD/US Government is too narrowly focused for Canada's needs. Andy suggests changing CEBoK language to more neutral terminology than keeping in DoD jargon, Neil agrees the intent is to make CEBoK less DoD specific and more approachable for suppliers and customers. The group agrees the goal should not be to dilute or make CEBoK less advanced, just more accessible to more users.

Jason points out how any body of knowledge like CEBoK becomes obsolete quickly, and asks what the task force plans to put in place to keep it current. Neil explains that the teachers of the Workshop training sessions tend to improve upon and update the modules as they go.

The group asks about what research has been done into the modules we don't yet have that we should consider developing. Neil says the team's first focus is on updating/improving existing modules.

Paul asks if Neil's CEBoK Task Force and Brian's Software CEBoK (sCEBoK) Committee are working together. Brian offers to piece together a software module from the new sCEBoK for use by Neil's team as the software module for CEBoK.

ICEAA Board of Directors Meeting

June 5, 2017 | Portland, Oregon

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Neil concludes that the plan for distribution of the updated CEBoK should be subscription based, online, and in a wiki format. Jason asks if the wiki format was already determined, since at a previous meeting we were told the plan would be to create a request for proposal to send to companies for their plan on distribution, maintenance, etc. Neil answers that the format and distribution has not yet been determined.

Paul maintains that the platform needs to be flexible enough to adapt to changes and stay current without another total overhaul. There are likely many methods and platforms that would work for us that need to be explored. Erin asks if a separate group should be formed to focus on the platform/delivery while Neil's group updates content. Paul thinks the existing task force can handle both, but need to tackle separately. Paul wants Neil to present next time the group's decision on how to approach the content/platform problem. Paul also noted that he would like platform decisions prior to module completion.

Noted again that software section is complete rewrite that is led by Brian Glauser's sCEBoK team and other modules are also suggested for complete rewrite. Neil requested that board send ideas to him regarding new modules

Action: Neil to present at the October 2017 board meeting the CEBoK Update Task Force's decision on how to approach the content improvement vs. platform update challenge.

CEBoK Training License Pricing

Jason Dechoretz/Kevin Cincotta

Kevin and Jason present slides with a counterproposal for the price of the CEBoK training license that was put into place in December 2016. The group agrees the new proposal is complicated and reverts to the old way of issuing training licenses that the 2016 version was intended to fix. In meantime will keep license policy as is.

Action: Jason, Kevin and Megan to present another new suggestion for CEBoK training licenses at the October 2017 meeting.

Certification Report

Sharon Burger

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Sharon presents certification report slides: the Canadian group who tested in April 2017 did exceptionally well.

Action: Sharon to add metric to the report on the number of people who are up for recertification who don't renew, and on the ratio of contractor vs. government employees taking the exam.

Sharon has been getting more calls from potential test takers who are overly concerned about the difficulty and likelihood of passing the CCEA.

Action: Christina to develop a presentation/set of FAQs to help with those who may have cold feet about the exam.

Chapter Reports

Meghan Kennedy and Rich Harwin expand upon the DC and SoCal Chapter reports. No additional comments or discussion from the chapter presidents present.

Efforts to Support Professionalization in Canada

Roger Ermuth

A representative from the Canadian Government explains some of the challenges Canadians have when using ICEAA's CEBoK and studying for/taking the PCEA and CCEA exams: the terminology in CEBoK is very US-DoD specific (using terminology/context that is not the same in Canada); and that CEBoK and the exams are only in English, which conflicts with Canada's bilingual efforts.

Canada's goals are to create and make available Canadian versions of CEBoK, CCEA and PCEA, and in both French and English, and launch this fall (2017).

Paul says ICEAA has no problem with Canada developing materials and content that suit their needs, but ICEAA needs to have one CEBoK. There could be different versions within, different modules, different languages, but it needs to still be CEBoK. To make a "Canadian Version" seems too stand-alone.

ICEAA Board of Directors Meeting

June 5, 2017 | Portland, Oregon

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Canada has been using a wiki structure to develop and modify the content they would need for the Canadian modules. Paul warns that ICEAA has a committee formed to restructure and reformat CEBoK, and while Canada is welcome to use a wiki to develop their new content, there is no guarantee that the final platform of CEBoK will end up being the same as the wiki format Canada is working on, so the efforts they make in a wiki now may need to be repeated in whatever format is determined. Paul requests reassurance that whatever work Canada does now is will be aligned with the new content that the CEBoK Task Force is developing.

Jason asks if the Canadian CEBoK be available to those outside Canada? Paul reiterates that there will not be a Canadian CEBoK, but simply Canadian-focused modules within CEBoK that will be available to all once ready.

Roger explains that the Government of Canada has no plans to take over CEBoK, its revenue streams, or development, and does not want to continue updating old content that is concurrently being updated by the CEBoK Task Force. The suggested plan is not to make this a Canadian Government project, but that the Canadian Government is willing to work with ICEAA to develop content that will be used across Canada.

The ICEAA Canada Chapter seeks permission to engage with the Canadian Government to outline what they want and by when, and serve as the liaison to ensure the ICEAA board is both aware of and comfortable with those plans.

Peter Weltman (ICEAA Canada Chapter President) has presented this as a result of a conference call that took place in late May 2017 during which Paul said the Canada chapter had approval from the board to pursue Canadian-focused CEBoK content, but such permission is not in any board minutes. The chapter is requesting formal permission from the board to continue to develop the Canadian-relevant content, as they have been working on it for over a year, and want to continue.

Paul believes ICEAA's responsibility is to facilitate training and professional development to the greater community. He applauds the Canada Chapter's effort, but unfortunately ICEAA's efforts to update CEBoK have lagged, aren't as far along as we'd like, and will take longer. While he does not want to slow or discourage Canada's efforts, and pledges to support them and help them move along.

Action: Megan to send the presented motions to and set up a meeting with the ICEAA Executive Committee, along with the CEBoK Update Task Force and the Software CEBoK

ICEAA Board of Directors Meeting

June 5, 2017 | Portland, Oregon

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Committee, for editing, then send to the Canadian representatives for comments/feedback and present updated motions at October 2017 meeting.

Jason wants the minutes to reflect that the ICEAA Board of Directors is willing to create a partnership with ICEAA Canada and the Canadian government to help with their short term problem and a willingness to adapt for the long term.

Value Proposition/Elevator Speech

Jason Dechoretz

Jason shares slides showing the efforts of his group (Rick Collins, Rich Harwin, Greg Kiviat, and Peter Andrejev) on developing a value proposition, and suggests four different value propositions each tailored to different audiences. The road show objective is to present to potential and current membership “what we do for you”. The intention is not to use every bullet for every audience, but pick and choose the relevant ones to keep the elevator speech at elevator-length.

Peter B. thinks the group should add a fifth audience of “industry leaders.” Erin suggests testing out the value propositions on attendees at the workshop.

Jason suggests promoting all of the speeches in one place, and make printable cheat sheet cards for board members and ICEAA members to use when explaining ICEAA’s value.

Action: Jason to collect wordsmithing and then present to Christina for marketing approach by August 1, 2017.

Training Report & CEBoK Wiki Efforts

Peter Braxton

Remmie Arnold headed up the training portion of the workshop this year, consolidating several sessions to make sure the range of topics remains broad while not having too many competing sessions run concurrently. Remmie has also been working with the sCEBoK team to debut seven new modules from the upcoming Software CEBoK.

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Peter schedules a meeting with Paul, Mike, Megan, Rick, and Neil to show the work Technomics has done copying the current CEBoK into a wiki platform. Suggested that wiki format would be helpful with the international participation.

Software Specialty Certification and sCEBoK Update

Brian Glauser

Brian's team is excited and pleased to be able to present on seven of the eight modules they have developed at the workshop this week, and thanks all those involved for their hard work.

Brian is looking for a new lead for the technical aspect of the sCEBoK development. The original idea was to form a management committee from various organizations (ICEAA, IFPUG, NESMA, COSMIC), then create a subcommittee to do the labor, but chosen leader of subcommittee isn't working out.

The group started by making the PowerPoints for use when presenting the materials, and plans to then expand the presentations into readable prose for self-study.

Paul asks how distilled the single software module in CEBoK will be compared to the full sCEBoK: Brian says it is intended to be a summary in the hopes of encouraging people to look deeper into the software certification and software specific curriculum.

2017 Workshop Update

Rich Harwin & Megan Jones

Rich and Megan present the 2017 Workshop slides.

As with previous years, the board is given the list of Association Award Winners for their up/down approval. The group agrees this is too late in the process to do so since the winners have already been notified. Award winners were approved by the board at this meeting.

Action: Megan to distribute the slate of winners to the board for an electronic vote prior to informing the winners next year.

ICEAA Board of Directors Meeting

June 5, 2017 | Portland, Oregon

APPROVED MINUTES as of September 30, 2017

Peter B. thinks the Association Award process be revisited and reviewed, from choosing the judges, to nomination limits and further defining qualifications. Megan suggests the 2015-2016 Awards Update Task Force be reconvened.

Action: Mike Thompson to send the guidelines that he had worked on for association awards to Joe Hamaker

New Business

Proxy Voting: Bill presents examples of proxy voting procedures and proposes some methods may be better used for certain votes than others. Paul prefers one method for proxies for every board vote, and that membership votes do not require proxy conditions.

Action: Megan to work with Bill and Jason to create language for the bylaws that confirm what the constitution defines as a quorum and how it is established, then add a paragraph to the bylaws on who can be a proxy (member in good standing), how (by written request prior to a meeting) and for how long (one request grants proxy to the member for all votes in that meeting).

SSCAG and the ICEAA Space SIG: Andy and Paul have been working on a charter of how the current Space Systems Cost Estimating Group (SSCAG) could dissolve and be brought into ICEAA as the Space SIG. SSCAG has created a charter that was reviewed by an ICEAA sub-group and questions/concerns were raised. Paul intended to address or resolve those issues.

Action: Paul, Megan, Mike, Jason, Andy and anyone else interested from both ICEAA or SSCAG to discuss to work out charter, will meet at PDX Workshop

Training License Discussion: Background – Pre-2016

- ICEAA requested that trainers give us $20/student/day for any training provided by a company for profit
- Language existed on the website and some old documents
- No enforcement or requirements in place, just a request
- It came to light that more companies were charging others for training than we were aware and not giving us the training fee
- ICEAA was not in control of our copyright

Training License Discussion: Background – 2016-2017

- Implemented a new training license in 2016 for $3,000/year for any/all training
- One company signed up
- Some concern from the board that the cost was too high
- Ideas proposed to offer membership discounts and/or ala carte modules
- CEBoK licenses have never been the responsibility of the outside trainer to secure for the trainees, so introducing a means for the trainer to purchase them, even at a discount, could confuse matters

Training License Discussion: Background – Conclusions

- The purpose of the training license is to:
  - Know who is providing the training, what they're teaching and when they're doing it
  - Prepare the ICEAA office with a roster of companies that I can be confident will be using CEBoK appropriately when I receive requests for training providers
  - Monitor CEBoK's use outside of ICEAA to keep control of our copyright
- The revenue has always been secondary

Training License Discussion: Proposed Procedure

- Companies interested in using CEBoK for revenue-earning third party training (exceptions being complimentary single-module events held in conjunction with chapters) will sign an MOU with ICEAA at the start of the fiscal year that outlines their responsibilities to ICEAA:
  - Trainers will send ICEAA a roster of names and email addresses for those receiving instruction to ICEAA
  - Trainers will send ICEAA a syllabus of the proposed training contract that includes dates and times
  - ICEAA will draft an invoice for the trainer for the (number of students being instructed x number of training days) x $20
- Any other financial agreements or negotiations for the instruction provided are between the third party and the trainer
- Only those companies that have a current MOU will be suggested by ICEAA as potential vendors for third-party training

Proposed ICEAA Chapter Funding Policy – DRAFT as of August 28, 2017

In the interest of empowering ICEAA's chapters to provide the best experiences and highest-quality services to the members in their area, the ICEAA Business Office commits to providing funds to each chapter annually. Amounts will be calculated based on percentages of purchases made by a chapter's members over the course of one calendar year. Chapters will be rewarded for a variety of member activities to encourage chapters to likewise encourage their members to stay actively involved with ICEAA.

This policy will be made readily available to all members and chapter leaders for reference. Edits and updates to the policy may be made if it is determined that amendments are necessary to ensure funding is distributed efficiently and effectively.

- Chapter financial reports must be received between January 1 and March 1 of the year after the dues year. It is the responsibility of all chapters to submit their financial reports in a timely manner. The report will include:
  - A scan, copy (hard or electronic), or PDF of the chapter's bank account year end statement
  - A chapter financial report form with a breakdown of revenue vs. expenses for the year by category
  - Scans or copies of all receipts for chapter-related purchases in excess of $50 (if the vendor/purpose of a cost is made clear by the bank statement detail, no scan is necessary)
  - Summary descriptions of all chapter activity for the year in question including scans or copies of marketing pieces and agendas for all meetings/events where applicable
  - The names and current contact information of the chapter contacts with access to the bank account(s)
- Within two weeks of receipt of the chapter financial report, the ICEAA Business office will email the chapter presidents with a calculation of the chapter's eligible funding. This amount will be calculated based on all purchases made between January 1 and December 31 of the previous year by ICEAA members who have indicated membership in the chapter:
  - Membership purchases: 5% of membership product purchase (e.g. $4.75 for $95 1-year membership purchase, $8.50 for $170 2-year membership purchase)
  - Certification purchases: 2% of certification-related purchases (e.g. $6.00 for $300 CCEA Part I & II exam purchases, $2.50 for $125 recertification fees)
  - ICEAA Workshop registration purchases: 1% of registrations to the ICEAA Workshop (e.g. $9.60 for $960 member-rate registration)
  - Chapters will not be credited for membership dues for individuals who purchased lifetime memberships through ISPA or SCEA, but will still qualify for percentages of those members' workshop or certification fees.
- Chapters will be provided the amount determined by the calculation above, or up to 120% of money spent during that year on appropriate chapter activities (excluding bank fees and administrative fees).
  - Appropriate chapter activities and/or spending that contribute to the overall ICEAA membership experience, provide training or networking opportunities, or otherwise help professionally develop the current and/or future cost community.
  - Funds may not be used for influencing legislation, supporting a political campaign, or any activity that is in violation of the constraints placed on 501\(c\)6 non-profit organizations as outlined by the United States Internal Revenue Service.

Proposed ICEAA Chapter Funding Policy – DRAFT as of August 28, 2017

- Per chapter constitutions: no assets or funds of this Chapter shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, officers, directors, or other private persons, except that the Chapter is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its Purposes set forth in this Constitution.

    - Revise US DoD content
    - Revise vocabulary used in the economic and financial sections (to include CFO community terminology)
  2. Make certification materials available in both official languages
  3. Allow people with more than 5 years of experience to maintain the PCEA designation.
- On its own, GC to:
    - Develop three tiers of training to align with the PCEA and CCEA certifications.
